WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

WHAT IS THE SEMINAR ON THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION?

The Fort Ticonderoga Seminar on the American Revolution is a two-day seminar focusing on the military and cultural history of North America during the American Revolution. The Seminar offers a casual environment for speakers and participants to interact throughout the course of the weekend and presents a mix of established and new scholars.

WHAT DOES THE SCHOLARSHIP INCLUDE?

The Teacher Scholarship to the Seminar includes:

- ◇ The Seminar registration fee, enabling you to attend all lecture presentations on Saturday, and Sunday, along with the Friday evening session;
- ◇ A Seminar packet with general information and speaker handouts;
- ◇ Coffee and donuts each morning;
- ◇ A box lunch on Saturday and Sunday;
- ◇ A private dinner with Seminar Patrons and members of the Seminar Faculty & Staff Saturday evening.

Wendy Bergeron, a Social Studies teacher at Winnacunnet High School in New Hampshire and a past teacher-in-residence at Fort Ticonderoga, will serve as your liaison before and during your participation in the Seminar.
