

TWENTIETH ANNUAL WAR COLLEGE OF
THE SEVEN YEARS' WAR
FORT TICONDEROGA
May 15-17, 2015

Teacher Scholarship Application

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

WHAT IS THE WAR COLLEGE OF THE SEVEN YEARS' WAR?

The War College of the Seven Years' War is a two-day, college-level seminar focusing on the military and cultural history of North America during the Seven Years' War (French & Indian War). Nearly 200 participants—people with a deep interest in 18th-century military history—join us each year. The War College provides participants with an opportunity to listen to and interact with the presenters in a relaxed atmosphere.

WHAT DOES THE SCHOLARSHIP INCLUDE?

The Teacher Scholarship to the War College includes:

- ◇ The War College registration fee, enabling you to attend all lecture presentations on Friday evening, Saturday, and Sunday;
- ◇ A War College packet with general information and speaker handouts;
- ◇ Coffee and donuts each morning;
- ◇ Lunch on Saturday;
- ◇ A private dinner with War College Patrons and members of the War College Faculty and Staff;
- ◇ Lunch on Sunday.

Shane Thelen, a Social Studies teacher at Crown Point Central School and a member of Fort Ticonderoga's Teacher Advisory Board, will serve as your liaison before and during your participation in the War College.
