INTRODUCTION

Before the American Revolution, Ticonderoga and the surrounding areas were not heavily settled. Many of the soldiers and militia men who served with the American Army travelled long distances by foot to arrive at Fort Ticonderoga. Ezra Tilden was a militia man during the American Revolution who was drafted to serve on July 20th, 1776. Tilden traveled along with Captain Endicott's Company from Stoughton, Massachusetts, joining Colonel Ephraim Wheelock's Militia Regiment at Ticonderoga. Before leaving for Ticonderoga, he wrote an account of what he carried in his knapsack, which you will read below.
