9. Béatrice Bardin Original Silkscreen Print - Framed

Béatrice Bardin created a series of silk aquatint monoprints, Le Jardin du Roi, 22" X 15", printed on Rives BFK paper in 2014, inspired by the King's Garden of Fort Ticonderoga. No two alike, all printed from a single matrix, they are inked in any variable fashion to connote the garden evolving from season to season. Born in France, Béatrice studied painting and print making at the National Academy of Design. She learned stone lithography at the Robert Blackburn Print Making Workshop. Her love of color and light guides her in watercolor or painting. Her paintings are large and mostly abstract based on plein air sketches and drawings from nature.
