

GROUP VISIT

ADULT HALF DAY ITINERARY

Bring your group to Fort Ticonderoga to explore one of the world's most historic and scenic sites. Groups of 15 or more enjoy a special rate of admission including the historic fort, weapons demonstrations, daily programs and tours, The Log House Welcome Center including the Museum Store and America's Fort Cafe, the King's Garden, on-going and special exhibition, Carillon Battlefield and hiking trail, and Mount Defiance. The rate also includes free parking. Let our friendly staff help you plan your unforgettable Fort Ticonderoga experience.

Arrive early and begin your Fort Ticonderoga experience with one of our expert staff leading a guided tour for your group. Discover why Fort Ticonderoga was the key to the continent in the 18th century and gain an insider perspective on all there is to see and do during your visit!

Enrich your experience with a Carillon Boat Tour. Step aboard Fort Ticonderoga's 60 ft touring boat and enjoy a scenic narrated tour. From heroic tales of naval battles to sonar images of underwater shipwrecks and historic bridges, you'll learn how the Hudson Champlain waterways defined the fate of North America in the 18th century. The picture perfect moment unfolds as you approach majestic Fort Ticonderoga from the water during the cruise. *Insider tip - the scenic boat tour is also a great opportunity for bird watching including Bald Eagles and Osprey!

After your cruise your group will enjoy a self-guided tour of the King's Garden. Step into the historic walled Colonial Revival Garden designed by one of America's female landscape architects, Marian Kruger Coffin and thrill at the explosion of color and beauty as this flower garden hints at the historic echoes of this powerful place.

Discover the story of the Pell family who made Fort Ticonderoga their personal country estate beginning in 1826 and later led the restoration of the fort and established the Fort Ticonderoga museum.

The King's Garden is a lovely spot for a group picnic. Grab a delicious pre-arranged boxed lunch from America's Fort Café and enjoy a memorable lunch situated in the historic Pell apple orchard.

Be sure to visit the Log House Welcome Center as you depart to shop in the Museum Store. From fashion and accessories to home décor and a large book selection, you'll find unique gifts inspired by Fort Ticonderoga's rich history for everyone on your list!
