Ongoing Programs & Outdoor Recreation

Soldiers' Dinner

What happened to the bread? Discover how crop failure spelled real trouble for Canadians and French soldiers in the middle of a 1758 military victory.

Musket Maintenance

Each shot of black powder fouled and ate away at muskets unless they were thoroughly cleaned. Watch as hot water, grease, and a brick dust keep weapons working lock, stock, and barrel.

Tailoring

Soldiers skilled with needle and thread made far more than just clothing. From napkins and haversacks, to tarps and lock covers for muskets, discover the many necessary things fashioned from cloth and canvas.

Shoemaking

Join skilled shoemakers as they make and fix French soldiers' shoes. Discover how handwork and mass-production combined to make shoes. Enjoy learning from our skilled shoemakers about the subtle style of men's shoes in 1758 and the science of making them fit.

Maritime Trades

A growing French fleet on Lake Champlain supplied the French Army at Carillon in 1758. Learn more about the boatbuilding that made that fleet and how French boat styles influenced vessel construction for generations in North America.

Carpentry

From tree to timber, to beam to building, watch carpentry in action as French soldiers use hand tools to recreate structures found here in 1758. See the uncommon skills that were shared among soldiers and allowed armies to build massive fortifications like Fort Carillon.

Livestock

From officer's personal flocks of chickens, to horse and ox teams logging and plowing, discover how livestock fed and provided the heavy hauling power during Montcalm's 1758 campaign.

Fifes & Drums

Daily, June 26-August 27 (various locations)

Listen to stirring tunes that eased the drudgery of a long march, or the many calls that regulated activity in the fort. Explore how drumbeats, trilling fifes, and songs created an 18th-century world of military music.

Family Programs Daily, June 26-August 27

Enjoy crafts and hands-on activities that inspire creativity and fire your imagination. Transport yourself back to the time when Fort Ticonderoga was the Key to a Continent.

Centuries of Seeds and Stories

Our friendly staff will be your guide to beautiful flowers and the layers of history found in the King's Garden. Leisurely stroll brick paths in the 20th-century walled garden, a tribute to the soldiers who fought here and a testament to America's first historic preservation effort.

Carillon Battlefield Hiking Trail

Explore 18th-century earthworks, glacial rock formations, and a pristine wilderness landscape on the 1.7 mile trail. Be sure to pick up a trail guide located in the Log House Welcome Center.
