

Memorial Day Weekend Visitor Schedule | May 28 & 29, 2022

Fort Ticonderoga will pay tribute to the men and women who lost their lives in service to their country during the American Revolution. Discover the story of the American Army in 1777 and how it prepared to defend liberty at Ticonderoga through living history programs and demonstrations throughout Memorial Day weekend.

Join a hive of activity as citizens-turned-soldiers reinforced extensive lines of defenses across the Ticonderoga peninsula and beyond to prepare for a renewed British invasion. Throughout the weekend, witness the labor of liberty as soldiers from the Continental Army bring to life this defining story through military drill, historic trades, and fatigue duties such as carpentry.

10:15 a.m. Key to the Continent Guided Tour (Begins at the American Flag)

In this entertaining 30-minute tour, discover Ticonderoga's incredible history and learn about all of the great experiences we offer today.

11:00 a.m. Musket Demonstration (Demonstration Area)

Earthworks defined the American defense of Ticonderoga in 1777. See how Continental Army soldiers could hold their ground, firing from behind a wall of earth. Discover how bullets, powder, fascines and earth were the tools of the American soldiers' trade.

11:30 a.m. A Guided Tour of the Fort Ticonderoga Museum (Begins on Parade Ground)

More than a century of collecting has allowed Fort Ticonderoga to acquire North America's largest and most important collection of 18th-century military material culture. This guided tour will give you the scoop on the most significant, rare, and interesting pieces in the collection on display.

11:30 a.m. Garden March (Begins at the American Flag)

Follow behind the Fifes and Drums down to the King's Garden with a musical escort.

11:45 a.m. Breaking Ground Tour: A Guided Tour of the Fort Ticonderoga Gardens (Begins at the King's Garden Greenhouse)

From military garrison gardens to a vibrant Colonial Revival garden, explore one of North America's oldest cultivated landscapes. Discover the incredible story of America's first historic preservation effort, and the family country estate and gardens emblematic of that legacy.

12:30 p.m. Music Demonstration (Parade Ground)

From reveille in the morning to tattoo at night, hear how drummers and fifers within the Army regulated daily life in 1777. Listen to the Fifes & Drums as they play the martial music that inspired private soldiers on campaign and influenced the orchestral music of civilian life.

1:00 p.m. Carillon Narrated Boat Cruise (Boat dock by King's Garden)

During this 75-minute narrated boat tour, our friendly and experienced staff will guide you through centuries of Lake Champlain's stirring maritime heritage. Panoramic mountain vistas will surround you and sonar readings present unforgettable images of shipwrecks. A selection of beer, wine, soft drinks, and snacks are available for sale on board!
