SCOUT OVERNIGHT SAMPLE PROGRAM ITINERARY 2022-23

SATURDAY:

12:00–1:00pm Arrival and orientation
1:00–2:30pm Self-guided exploration of Fort Ticonderoga
 The Site Map you receive upon arrival can be a useful guide to help you take advantage of this time. Explore museum exhibitions, visit historic trades' shops, and take part in the general guided tours and demonstrations.
2:30-3:30 Planting the Tree of Liberty Program
 Become immersed in the daily routine of soldiers garrisoning Fort Ticonderoga in the weeks after the capture of Fort Ticonderoga by Ethan Allen and Benedict Arnold in 1775. Form a platoon of soldiers and practice teamwork and discipline as you undergo a typical day in the life of soldiers. Explore the training used to prepare soldiers to meet a powerful enemy, what soldiers ate, where they slept, and experience the confusion of battle.
3:30–4:00pm Soldiers' Fatigue
 Explore tasks from a typical day in the life of Continental Soldiers garrisoning Ticonderoga 1775-1777 including cutting firewood, logging, building earthen fortifications, & more!
4:00-5:00 pm Load gear onto ox cart and set up camp
5:00pm Guided hike led by Fort Ticonderoga staff
6:30–7:30pm Flag lowering
6:30-8:00pm 18th-century Dinner
 After a thorough demonstration, join in and prepare an 18th-century-style dinner to enjoy!
8:00pm Scout-directed programming led by troop

SUNDAY:

Morning Reveille & flag raising
8:00-9:00am 18th-century Breakfast
 After a thorough demonstration, join in and prepare an 18th-century-style breakfast to enjoy!
9:00–9:15am Pack up and remove camping/personal gear
9:30am--5:00pm Explore the site at your leisure
 Explore any parts of the property you were not able to see on Saturday. You have full access to the daily itinerary located inside your Site Map.
