

Girl Scout Badges and Journeys

Brownies

Begin earning your badge and journey patches at Fort Ticonderoga with these recommended ideas!

Badges

Hiker

Gain your hiker badge by exploring the Carillon Battlefield Trail! Plan your hike by picking up a trail guide to learn about natural resources and historic landmarks along the trail. Prepare for your hike and talk about "Leave No Trace" before you visit Fort Ticonderoga.

Senses

Put all your senses to work while visiting Fort Ticonderoga! Look around to see the water surrounding the fort, listen to the sounds of our musket or cannon demonstration, find out if you can smell what's cooking for a soldier's dinner, feel how fabrics and leather differ while visiting our historic trades or taste fresh herbs out of our edible petals garden in the King's Garden!

Painting

Bring your painting supplies and get creative! There are a lot of opportunities to paint the world around you at Fort Ticonderoga. Visit the barracks and see where soldiers slept or explore the views of Lake Champlain to inspire your very own painting! You can even walk through our exhibits to see how paintings have helped us better understand the 18th century!

Journeys

A World of Girls

Talk to one of our staff members to learn more about the importance of 18th-century women and girls at Fort Ticonderoga! Learn about what skills they had, why they were at Fort Ticonderoga, and what clothing they wore. Take the lessons you learned to teach others in a creative or interactive way!

WOW! Wonders of Water

Examine the geography, take a walk to the King's Garden or through our exhibits, and be sure to talk to our historic trades staff to learn about the importance of water to Fort Ticonderoga! You'll soon find out that water was important to every facet of life in the 18th century!
